

Crackups

By Ar dovino

Copyright 1981, The New Yorker Inc.

"Which way to the Mississippi?"

CRACK-UPS

By Corka

"And not only this year's return. You can also put it down as an estimated loss in 1946."

Copyright 1944 Field Publications

"Evidently she didn't take you seriously."

CRACK-UPS

By Ned Hilton

"Very well, Joe Beamish, if you'd rather be with your nasty old sergeant . . ."

CRACK-UPS

Copyright, 1943, The Newspaper PM, Inc.

By Ed Neffziger

"I hate oysters—and I'm not going to cultivate a taste for them!"

Crackups

By Partch

Copyright 1944 Field Publications

"Lucky Heinkmann—I only have nightmares."

CRACK-UPS

By John M. Price

"Didn't you get an instruction book with this?"

CRACK-UPS

By Larry Reynolds

"That's the fellow I've got a date with, and he hasn't got a friend!"

CRACK-UPS

By Mischa Richter

"But, Senator, you must commit yourself. Yes or no?"

CRACK-UPS

By Irving Roir

"MAMA—I'm off your hands!"

CRACK-UPS

By Sparber

Sparber
"I was just polishing it like this, when—oops, here he comes again!"